

The English had just defeated the Spanish armada...

meanwhile, elsewhere...

Women were accused of witchcraft in Scotland.

KEY INFORMATION:

The most famous witch-hunting events in Scotland were the North Berwick witch trials in _____, where approximately _____ suspected witches were accused, with many executed. The King of Scotland was _____ who later became King of _____ as well.

Mark on the map of Scotland the following two locations: North Berwick and Edinburgh.

Why did the witch hunts begin? Briefly describe these people's role:

- 1) James VI _____

- 2) Gilly Duncan _____

- 3) Anna Koldings _____

Give two examples of the different torture methods, and briefly describe how they were used.

- 1) _____
- 2) _____

Describe why the following people were accused of being witches:

John Fian _____

Gilly Duncan _____

Why was James VI so fearful of witches?

What did King James discuss in "Daemonologie"?

Why was it so important at the time?

Why was James so alarmed when the Earl of Bothwell was accused?

Useful websites, videos and podcasts

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aNsx0yuk47M> (7:10 onwards)
- http://www.witchcraftandwitches.com/trials_north_berwick.html
- <https://www.historyextra.com/period/stuart/king-james-vi-i-hunted-witches-hunter-devilry-daemonologie/>

This 'meanwhile, elsewhere' was designed by:

Dan Slack