

Trench warfare was used on the Western Front...
meanwhile, elsewhere...

the war was also fought in the Alps between 1915-1918.

KEY INFORMATION:
 Italy fought _____ in the Alps and Dolomites. _____ %
 of the Italian frontline was in the mountains.

The blue lines represent the front line. Which part of the line did not move at all between 1915-1918? Annotate the map to show your answer.

The progress of the Alpine War

The Italians were on the verge of collapse on the Isonzo River by the end of 1915. Why could Austria-Hungary not defeat them? _____

Where did the Austro-Hungarian army attack the Italians in 1916? _____

What were the results of the 1917 Battle of Caporetto? _____

Why were British troops sent to fight on the Italian Front? _____

The White War

What were the main challenges of mountain warfare?

Only about one third of the men who died were killed by fighting. How did most men die?

The impact of global warming

What is being discovered as the Adamello glacier retreats?

Useful websites, videos and podcasts:
<https://www.bl.uk/world-war-one/articles/mountain-warfare#>
<https://www.telegraph.co.uk/history/world-war-one/10562017/Melting-glaciers-in-northern-Italy-reveal-corporse-of-WW1-soldiers.html>
<https://encyclopedia.1914-1918-online.net/article/italian-front>
http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/programmes/from_our_own_correspondent/9522135.stm

This 'meanwhile, elsewhere' was designed by:
 Helen Snelson