

SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES

Our colleagues have been working hard to pull together a suite of high quality activities for you to engage with during these current circumstances. We can't wait for you to get involved!

WHAT'S ON OFFER?

The School of Humanities wish to help teachers and students in the local area by offering materials to support learning.

They are creating videos for GCSE pupils, covering a real range of subjects in English Literature, English Language, Creative and Professional Writing, Linguistics, Religious Studies, and Philosophy.

HOW TO ACCESS

The videos can be found by following the link below, click on the calendar document and you can search for these events and you will find up-to-date information on these activities and others.

Click here

RESOURCES

The resources will cover numerous topics such as:

- Race and Identity in Toni Morrison's short story Recitatif.
- Ideas of Conflict, Juxtaposition and Clashes in Poetry.
- Shakespeare's Macbeth.
- Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol.
- On Diversity: Not all Hindus, Muslims, Sikhs are the same.
- Anger and Protest.
- 08-07-2020 at 7pm-8pm: Live event on Chaucer's 'Man of Law's tale', suitable for pupils age 13 and up.

